Celebrate children in libraries with us in this Statewide event initiated by the New York Library Association (NYLA). Take Your Child to the Library Day is a special event celebrating early literacy in libraries - held annually on the first Saturday in February.

The Ford Library will be participating in this event with a special activity from 12:30-1:30pm on Sat. Feb. 2nd. Stop by during our open hours this day (10am-2pm) for a special treat!

Come celebrate with us! Everyone is welcome.
